CRATEMOVERS PARTNER PROGRAM — FOR REALTORS & BROKERAGES

The closing gift they use the same week

A week of moving crates, delivered to your client's door with your card on top — $139.

Cutting boards get regifted and wine gets forgotten. A CrateMovers closing gift gets used immediately, in the house you just sold, by a client who retells the story at every housewarming. Two minutes per gift, one monthly invoice.

The gift

- Standard gift — $139
  Two-bedroom crate bundle for one week: ~35 reusable 27-gal crates, delivery, pickup, and a crate dolly included. Your branded card rides on top of the stack.
- Volume price — $119
  At 5+ gifts per month per brokerage. Same bundle, same service, billed monthly to the office with per-agent line items.
- Works for sellers too
  Sellers need to pack before you list. A gift that starts at the listing appointment sets you apart before the sign goes up.

How it works

- 1. Email the closing week
  Client name, delivery address, closing week, and your custom note. That is the whole order — no accounts, no contracts.
- 2. We deliver
  Clean, sanitized crates arrive before move week with a dolly and your card attached.
- 3. They move, we collect
  A full week to pack and move; we pick up the empties from the new address.
- 4. One monthly invoice
  Consolidated per brokerage, per-agent line items, net-15, check or card. No deposits.

Why agents reorder

- Used at peak gratitude
  Move week is when your client loves you most — the gift lands exactly then.
- A story that retells itself
  "Our agent gave us moving crates" is a referral engine; "our agent gave us a mug" is not.
- Zero logistics for you
  No wrapping, no delivery runs, no gift-basket closet. Two minutes per gift after the first email.
